

Your research. Your choice.

School of Humanities and Social Sciences invites applications for faculty positions with special focus on research.

We are a research-led, interdisciplinary university that is fiercely committed to research. With a singular focus towards creation of new knowledge having long term effects, we support our research faculty in incomparable ways. Providing generous grants, access to research facilities, the leadership of industry stalwarts, and above all, the academic freedom that puts you in command of your chosen research topic, are just few of them. So, if you are up to the challenge, we are eager to hear from you.
